Program Description

The New England Board of Higher Education (NEBHE) has established a regional program under which qualified residents of the region may receive reduced tuition rates when attending college in another New England state. The major chosen must be one which is not available in the student's home state (as approved by the public institution in the home state) and which is indicated as available for the tuition reduction by the institution the student plans to attend. Each participating New England institution designates which of its programs will be offered under this program once they are approved by the other states.

Information may be obtained from any New England high school guidance office or check the NEBHE web site for the most up-to-date information at <http://www.nebhe.org> using the on-line look up.
